What Do We Know Historically about Jesus?

Presented by

Felix Just, S.J., Ph.D.

What's Historical about Jesus' Life? August 20, 2011 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

What's Historical about Jesus' Birth? December 17, 2011 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

What's Historical about Jesus' Death? March 31, 2012 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

What do we really know about Jesus of Nazareth, the historical person who lived almost 2000 years ago? Are there great differences between the "Historical Jesus" and the "Christ of Faith"?

In the last few centuries, biblical scholars have expended great effort in trying to "rediscover" the "historical Jesus", but with varying results. What conclusions have they proposed? What criteria do they use in such investigations? In addition to the four Gospels of the New Testament, what other ancient sources might help us to learn more about Jesus? What difference does all of this research really make for Christian believers today?

You are invited to three workshops exploring our historical knowledge of Jesus. Each of these workshops complements the others, but may be taken independently.

This series of one-day workshops will look at important questions related to Jesus Christ, focusing first on what is known historically about the life and ministry of Jesus, especially his teachings and actions. Just before Christmas, we will consider more closely what we really know about the heritage and birth of Jesus. As Holy Week approaches, we will investigate what can be reliably known about the death and resurrection of Jesus.

Please bring your Bible and your questions, invite your family and friends, and come with a curious and open mind ready to learn and share with one another.
